

Looking for a new challenge in audiologic care working with one of Southern Oregon's most storied practices? Oregon Ear, Nose & Throat Center is actively searching for an audiologist to work in a dynamic and patient-centric ear, nose and throat practice. This position offers an opportunity to see and treat a wide range of ear pathologies. Job duties include a full range of diagnostic hearing and vestibular testing, VNG, pediatric and adult hearing assessments, as well as dispensing hearing instruments without the pressure of sales-based commission.

We offer a comprehensive benefits package, including a competitive salary with a sign-on bonus ranging from $5,000-$10,000, generous paid time off, full-coverage medical, dental and vision insurance and more. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about what it's like to work with us, Apply Today by sending your resume and inquiry to Kelly Cook!

About Oregon Ear, Nose & Throat Center:

Established in 1948, the Oregon Ear, Nose, and Throat Center is an independent physician group serving Southern Oregon and surrounding regions. Our elite collective of ENTs, surgeons and audiologists are committed to providing the highest level of otolaryngology and audiologic care, operating out of a two-floor state-of-the-art facility featuring a hearing aid center, CT scanner, and full-suite allergy and surgery departments.

We strive to create a welcoming and supportive workplace for our medical professionals. Work-life balance is embedded in our culture; we want to ensure that you have plenty of time to rest and recharge with your loved ones so that you can properly care for your patients when you're at the office.

Our employees consistently exhibit our core values of kindness, honesty and respect daily, creating an enjoyable work environment and leading to high employee retention rates. Our team includes several long-term employees. Our practice manager has been here for 18 years; one of our hearing instrument specialists has been employed with us for 20 years; and our recently retired audiologist worked here for 30+ years!

About Southern Oregon

If you're a lover of the great outdoors, small-town living, sunny weather and Shakespeare, Southern Oregon is the place to be! You can indulge your adventurous side year-round here: skiing, snowboarding, fishing, camping, rafting and hiking are all popular pastimes. If you're more interested in kicking back and relaxing, enjoy a craft beer or cider at one of downtown Medford's numerous breweries, or spend an afternoon exploring its unique shops, restaurants and boutiques. Festivals abound in Southern Oregon, including the nationally renowned Oregon Shakespeare Festival in Ashland. For an experience you'll never forget, take in a live performance under the stars in the majestic outdoor Allen Elizabethan Theatre. There is a lot to see and do in Southern Oregon—and you'll find plenty of friendly neighbors and coworkers willing to join you while you explore your new home base!